January 2018

Blessings to you all my dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

I trust your holidays were blessed and you all had time to spend with family and friends, and our Lord blessed all of you abundantly. I was able to escape from my normal routine and fly away to Salt Lake City Utah to be with my three children who live there and their families and friends. My daughter Amy Ubico and her two children Stuy and Lisa, who live here in Guatemala and have not been to the states in several years, were able to travel with me. So we really had a wonderful family reunion. We were so blessed to be together as one big loving family again, spending Christmas and New Year's together. We will be returning to Guatemala on January 2nd.

Now to business, the Lord's business I might add. As you will remember in my last letter in November, I shared that we still needed funds to complete the construction of the classrooms and bathrooms and I was leaving it all in His hands. Really what better hands to be in than our Lord's. Not a step behind or a step ahead but just waiting on His timing (We received a donation that covered what needed to be finished). Just a reminder that God so loves us and He knows our every need, we only have to wait and have faith in Him. So we now are finishing up the last touches of our beautiful two story building. Six large classrooms, four on the second floor and two on the first floor, along with the lovely tiled bathrooms, girls and boys. What a blessing awaits our children as they return to classes on January 15, 2018. We were able to equip the classes with new desks, white boards, audio visual screens, well just everything that the children need to receive the education they deserve. God wants the very best for those that love Him, and that is what we are trying to show the children and their families, sharing God's love and His word to the lost in this world. They might never have heard the good news that Jesus loves them and died for their sins, and they only have to believe in Him and accept Him as their Savior. We stand firm in our belief that all these years of sharing the Word, the harvest is here and now. The seeds we have planted are bearing fruits and we will see this great bringing in of souls for the Lord. Thank you for being part of this mission that God has trusted to us. Blessings to you dear ones. Continue to pray for us and the work God has put before us.
