MAKING DISCIPLES BY
GOING | BAPTIZING | & TEACHING THE FAITHFUL

Dear friends & family,

August 2019

Have you ever experienced a divine appointment? Have you ever met a seemingly random person only to discover that you were connected in unexpected ways? When we arrived in Mexico earlier this year we were introduced to a friend of a friend here at our home. This man came to visit us a week later by himself. We invited him into our kitchen for coffee and within a few minutes Tynan felt led to share the Gospel with him.

He continued to visit us, and appeared on the Fourth of July when we had gathered some friends for an all-out American BBQ. (It was a lot of fun!) Another time he surprised us by coming to a Disciple Group that we had in another town, having been invited by a couple at our party. At this meeting he prayed and declared Christ as his Savior. This past Sunday we had the privilege of baptizing that man, Antonio, our new brother in Christ.

We realized this was a God connection when he started to tell us his story. He worked in Missouri at the Tyson Plant about 30 yrs ago. We had visited this area in 2017 when we found out they had an indigenous population. The day we visited we didn't meet a single person. Yet, as we left town we prayed for the indigenous people and their friends and neighbors to be impacted for the Gospel.

Out of all the 200,000 people living here we could have met this year, God brought us the one man who had a connection to the prayer we prayed two years ago. It was a surreal and powerful experience. We continue to trust the Lord to place people of peace in our path.

Please continue to pray for this region to see a decline in regards to the political unrest we have seen. As always, we need your fervent prayers for open hearts to receive the Gospel and protection while we work here to bring the Good News to hungry hearts.
