AUGUST - SEPTEMBER 2019

JUST LIKE THAT, WE ARE WRAPPING UP SUMMER ALREADY!

I would have to say this has been one of the craziest and most incredible summers to date. So August, you have been good. Here's just a few of the highlights and stories from this month.

Near the beginning of the month, Bryan and I finished wrapping up our last couple of surf camps, finishing off with many baptisms of the kids that were attending. It was so cool to see so many young kids dedicating their lives to Christ at such a young age, and with such an interest in the gospel! After wrapping up our surf camps, I hopped on a plane to Mexico, and this is where things started to get really exciting.

Let me introduce you to an organization called Crave The Movement. Crave is a christian non profit based out of Kentucky that I had been acquainted with and had done some work for earlier in the summer. They are an organization that throws big rave events, but without the drugs, alcohol, etc. They explain it as "party with purpose." Crave specifically makes a point to not reach out to the church community when they invite people, because it is specifically an evangelistic movement, they invite many non christian teens around ages 16-20. So about halfway through the night, after everyone is sort of danced out they'll bring the energy down a bit and explain why they're putting this event on and then share the gospel with the crowd, and wow does God ever show up.

So I spent about 10 days in Mexico with them as they toured around Mexico City, Puebla City, and Tlaxcala. I had the honour of documenting their tour and working with them to create a recap film you can view on my youtube channel. Anyway, the venues we were at all together had about 1200 kids or so, and there was about a 90-100% response to receiving Christ. I have never seen the Holy Spirit show up so strong and just completely transform so many non believers. It was incredible.

If you want to learn more about what they do and how God is using this incredible ministry you can visit their website: cravethemovement.com

Now, being back in California, the rest of the month has been a lot of time editing what was shot for Crave in Mexico. After that, I had the opportunity to shoot 4 more worship music videos with the same production company as last month, Arise Productions, in San Diego. The purpose behind these is to create an opportunity for worship through videos as well! Those will be released later this month. All in all, it was a pretty amazing month. I saw God show up in so many ways. It is and always will be an honour to be able to document through film what God is doing, whatever that looks like, and help spread his love through these projects!

So what's next? Well now that fall has come around, it looks like I'm going to be staying here in California! Bryan and I are getting ready to start prep for a full length feature film which I will be sharing more about as the project starts to take shape. So stay tuned, because I have a feeling God's got some pretty cool plans up His sleeve!

Once again I want to thank you so much for supporting me as I continue down this path God has called me on. I look forward to each month; sharing how He shows up and how I am getting to use my gifts of filmmaking to share the gospel, help other ministries, and just create excellent God pleasing content!
Blessings,
