"Convinced of this, I know that I will remain, and I will continue with all of you for your progress and joy in the faith."
Philippians 1:25

NOVEMBER 2020

We forget that the one great reason underneath all missionary enterprise is not first the elevation of the people, nor the education of the people, nor their needs; but first and foremost the command of Jesus Christ —

"Go ye therefore, and teach all nations." ~Oswald Chambers

I arrived in Kitale, Kenya in September with my son Maverick, his wife Amy and their three children, Jonah, Hudson and Ava who are also Globe Missionaries. Life here is very different, and is still reeling as in the U.S. from the effects of the pandemic. I have been busy helping with the grandkids, adjusting to the climate and culture change and have also had time to have some sweet ministry moments.

One of those moments was meeting with some of the teachers and encouraging them, and praying for them. God is doing great things here at the Challenge Farm and I'm so thankful to be a part of it.

"Therefore endure everything for the sake of the elect, that they also may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory." 2 Timothy 2:10

My son Maverick preached the second Sunday we were here and seven girls came forward to receive Christ. This was a blessing to see lives touched and changed for the LORD. They will be getting baptized soon.

Along with the joy of seeing these girls at Challenge Farm begin a new life in Christ, my little 4 1/2 year old grandson Jonah asked Jesus to come into his heart. Nothing could have touched this mother's heart more than seeing my son preach the gospel and win souls for eternity, and then see the supernatural touch on little Jonah's life. Isn't this what true thanksgiving is?

Amy is homeschooling Jonah and Hudson. She began with teaching about creation, shadows, light & darkness.

I have a return ticket for the beginning of December, but am currently in the process of extending my visa. Please keep us all in your prayers as we pray and follow the LORD's guidance and again I want to thank you for your financial support.

Blessed is our Lord Most High,

- Marlene
