

O come let us
adore Him

DECEMBER 2020

Oh Come let us Adore Him....Christ the King!

Matthew's account in chapter 2 of his gospel tells us of the Wise men who came seeking the King and let me say that today "wise" men (and women) are still seeking the King! I hope this Christmastime that, in spite of all that this year has brought, that we are still able to acknowledge that Jesus is King over all! Over our personal lives, our circumstances and our situations. King over our successes and even our failures and disappointments. And as King, He is still ruling and reigning over all the earth including the events we find ourselves involved in. Margie and I still stand on the foundation of our faith, King Jesus, who loves us and died for us and still has His hand upon us! Bless God! We have continued to worship and adore Him as we persisted through the year ministering to those in the Philippines whom God has connected us to. Even from an increased 14-hour time difference and 9,000 miles away disciplining and advising and guiding and even correcting, has never stopped, because God never stops pouring into us in order that we can overflow into others. I'll say it again, without YOU we couldn't do what we are called to do in the Philippines, so a BIG THANK YOU for all your continued involvement and prayers and support and commitment to us this past year. The harvest is ripe in Mindanao and it's an honor to serve the Lord and the Filipino people. Knowing we have you dear partners, both standing with, and sending, us is such a source of great encouragement.

Let me leave you with this scripture from Titus, so that you can be greatly encouraged just as we are.

"When God our Savior revealed his kindness and love, He saved us, not because of the righteous things we had done, but because of His mercy. He washed away our sins, giving us a new birth and new life through the Holy Spirit. 6 He generously poured out the Spirit upon us through Jesus Christ our Savior. Because of His grace He made us right in His sight and gave us confidence that we will inherit eternal life." Titus 3: 4-6 NLT

Finally let's leave you with God's word to encourage us all. "Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and by his grace gave us eternal comfort and a wonderful hope, comfort you and strengthen you in every good thing you do and say!" (2Thess 2:16-17 NLT)

Merry Christmas and a Blessed New Year!
