GLOBALLY HIS

Beloved Friends and Family,

March 2021

Again and again, the All-Sufficient One has met our needs and much more. Thank you, for your generosity and your covering in prayer. He continues to buoy us up and fill our hearts with joy because of who He is. His love never fails. We so appreciate you and your friendship and your partnering with us in Christ.

Years ago we were first given a prayer booklet, “Seek God for the City, 40 Days to Palm Sunday” from Doug Silvis. He is a compassionate visionary that is making a difference because he carries through on the mandate God has given him. He is the founder of CTI, Community Transformation Inc. in Thomasville, GA. It is an organization still dear to our hearts that we were part of. Their mission is to promote prayer and partnering to make disciples of Jesus Christ and change the spiritual climate of our communities. Since it is now Lenten season we get these daily prayer points via email. It delights us to pray around the globe and know that as we pray collectively for these specific needs lives are being transformed. We still need to look up where some of the tiny island nations are located as we pray for the nations. The Lord asks His children to lovingly stay connected to Him, to be faithful, to follow Him, to love others, and make Him known.

It's lovely to see buds and color returning to barren trees and bushes and flowers popping up. We just had a delightful visit from my sister, Barb, and her husband, Marshall, on their way to FL from PA. They enjoyed our abundance of blooming daffodils. We have 2 groups of daffodils. In one area all the flowers stand up straightly and the others droop with their heads down. This observation reminded us of harvest time when the crops are ready to be harvested their heads will drop down with weight. Similarly, it seems to be true as we watch the body language of people with worries and cares that cause their heads to drop down and we are presented with a prayer and witnessing opportunity. The other day I needed to get meds refilled and we shopped for groceries afterward.

Only a few people were in the commissary when Shirley got behind an older lady that moved almost in slow motion and she was totally blocking the aisle. Shirley waited patiently and when this elderly lady turned around and saw her she apologized for her slowness. Shirley reassured her that it was no problem, she was not in a hurry. The lady said I can't do anything in a hurry anymore. Wide-open door: "Would you like to share what is going on with you?" She shared. "May I pray for you?" "Oh, yes." In the normalcy of our lives, we stopped to pray in the grocery aisle and God showed up. This lady continued on afterward, but with her head held higher. Kindness encourages the receiver and the giver, doesn't it? This month in a devotional that Sharon, Shirley's sister sends us, was a great nugget. "When Peter, James, and John met Jesus their goal was to make a living. Then Jesus invited them to follow Him and make a difference." We delight in getting to participate with the Lord and make a difference, don't you?

We worship a Risen Savior, the only One whose grave is empty, the True and Living God. Resurrection Sunday is coming, we in Christ enjoy the blessings of Jesus' Resurrection daily. But there are people like we were, who regularly attended church but were still without a personal relationship with Christ, so remember to live Christ-like before people you meet anywhere offering His love and grace. In Revelation 1:17-18, John saw Jesus and fell at His feet and heard Him say "Do not be afraid. I am the First and the Last. I am the Living One. I was dead, and behold I am alive for ever and ever! And I hold the keys of death and Hades." God is truly in control. He is our hope and joy and we can testify to His goodness and His greatness. We have seen His miracle-working power many times and that same Spirit that raised Christ from the dead dwells in us. We are complete in Him. He gives us peace that passes understanding, even in this pandemic. He lives and is the Revealer of all Truth. Hallelujah!!!

We love you. We are adding photos from A Haz. The attendance is less, as it is in most places but you can see some of the faces we long to see again.

Blessings,

Michael and Shirley
