Dear friends and family,

Lots has happened since I have returned home to Scotland!

In December, I had the ladies Christmas party and it was lots of fun! We had snacks, games, prizes, and lots and lots of laughter!

It is always wonderful getting to hear and see everyone chatting and having a lovely time. I think that it is refreshing when we all get to come together and visit with each other. It breaks up the usual routine!

This year was a little different because in December, we were still having to social distance and follow covid guidelines. Regardless, we all had a lovely time!

Sandra and Cathie were even able to join us! They are feeling stronger and doing really well. Thank you for praying for them!

Cathie is doing so well that she is going on holiday with one of her friends! She and her friend are both in their 80's!

EXCITING NEWS ALERT!!!

For the ladies meeting, we have been meeting in person!!

We meet every other Friday and it has been amazing! I can see God really working in the lives of those who are coming.

The past couple of weeks, it seems like there has been a shift among the women. They seem to be wanting to go deeper and they are even sharing more. They have so many layers to discover, layers that have been buried for so long! My prayer is that they will allow God to heal those places.

In our last meeting, a couple of the women were crying as they shared. God is doing something new in them. He is showing them things that they need to give Him and allow Him to heal them from the inside out! I am so excited to see what's next!

For the last couple of meetings, we have been talking about how God has a plan for us and how we must persevere onward when things get tuff.

I asked each lady to share one thing that is causing them hardship and then once they shared this, I asked them to share one promise that God is saying about this hardship! It was amazing watching them share and see their hearts.

For some, it was a real challenge to to be honest and open up. But, watching them take that extra step was such pure delight.

My prayer as we move forward is that the ladies will experience healing in these areas and allow God to heal their hearts. That they WILL persevere through their struggles so they can look back and say, LOOK, SEE WHAT GOD DID!?!?

Thank you all for your continued prayers and support! Each and everyone of you are cherished and lifted up every day!
