September-October 2022

Dear friends and family,
September flew by and October flew in! So many fun things have happened since I have written to you last.

The Church put on an outreach fun day. The aim was to let the community know that we are in the area. We had several families attend and participate in all the activities. Everyone seemed to enjoy themselves. Each family was able to enjoy a bouncy castle, portrait drawings, corn hole, crafts, refreshments, and more! It was a great day! Now, our prayer is that the families will remember we are in the community and will want to come and know about God's love. Please pray that we will reach the community and many will come to know Jesus. Scotland is a hard country to reach. Their hearts are closed off to even wanting to know Jesus. I pray that they will come to know His love for them and the hope that He has for their future.

Sandra and I's monthly outing to the hair salon

I am continuing to take Sandra out once a month to get her hair done. Over the course of time that I have been doing this, I see a confidence growing in Sandra. It is so wonderful to see! Sandra's health seems to be improving and she seems a bit more stable on her feet. I have been helping her get some of her personal things in order and get her home back in order from when she wasn't well. This is going well!

Crafts

Portrait drawings

When I meet with Sandra, I make it a point to encourage her and build her up. To remind her of who God says she is and that she is going in the right direction. Even when she feels like things are at a standstill. Her motivation has grown greatly and as of this month, she has accomplished many tasks she wanted to get done. I pray that she will continue to stay motivated and not give up. To remember God's love for her and let this be her strength. Will you join me in praying for her?

Bouncy Castle

In September, I celebrated my 32nd birthday! During this celebration time I was thinking about how crazy it is that I am now 32, as I was 22 when I moved here. This coming February will be 10 years since I moved here. Every time I think about this, I am blown away by just how amazing this journey has been. Of course there have been challenges along the way but I can honestly say they have all been worth it.

I am honoured to share this journey with each and everyone of you. Your prayers and support are cherished! I am thankful for each and every one of you. I cannot wait to share many more years with you all! Serving the people of Scotland has been life changing! God is so good!

Love and blessings to you all, Jessica Tomlinson
