7 years!

It truly is mind boggling that we have lived in Sydney for 7 years. Considering that we came on a tourist visa for about 7 months, it is impossible what God has done to provide for us here. But what does 7 years look like?

This...this is what 7 years looks like. Benny was born a couple of weeks after we moved to Sydney. As far as he is concerned, we have always lived in Sydney. He doesn't know life without Auntie Katie and Uncle David and cupcakes on demand.

One of the first girls I did discipleship with when we first moved here is now expecting her first child. Countless strangers have come to whatever function we are currently hosting by people who didn't know how to share the Gospel, but they knew they could always bring them to our place for food and Jesus.

We are in awe of all that God has allowed us to experience in the last 7 years. While our visa is still up in the air, and we may or may not get more time here in Australia, we still want to take a minute to praise all that God has already done and all of the lives impacted, ours most of all. Weddings, babies, funerals, heartbreak, prayers through tears and prayers through praise, God has carried us every step.

We continue to thank you and pray for you. YOU are the reason we can continue to speak into all of these lives. We never for one minute think that we can do this without a team of prayer warriors, generous givers, and ceaseless cheerleaders that partner with us. We hope that you sincerely feel a part of all that has happened in Sydney over the last 7 years. THANK YOU!!

Until all have heard.
-David and Katie
