HAPPY THANKSGIVING!!

I'm sure most of you have experienced your first taste of cooler weather by now. We just returned from visiting partners in Knoxville, Tennessee, and a church in southern Illinois, ending our trip with a couple of days in Greenville, South Carolina before returning home. We left Knoxville just before it turned cold there, and experienced a bit of cold weather in Illinois. It turned cold in Greenville while we were there, and we returned home to subfreezing temperatures here

We were blessed to get in on the beautiful Fall colors as we traveled. The leaves were at their peak in Greenville, and we enjoyed some sightseeing while there.

We are grateful to our friends for hosting us in Knoxville. They have been long-time partners and friends.

Liberty Church in Du Quoin, Illinois has also been a long-time partner. Unfortunately, we missed their missions conference earlier this year because we were sick. We made this trip, so we didn't have to wait until next year to see them all and thank them. We were blessed that Pastor Hank gave us some time to share with the church on Sunday and that some of our partners hosted us for the visit.

We stopped in Greenville, South Carolina to check on getting Danny's favorite study Bible recovered. By the way, a ministry called Scriptura is doing it – a very reasonable price and they give a percentage of their profits to reach the unreached of the world!! We enjoyed some sightseeing while there. God's creation is so amazing!

Thank you for your partnership with us in prayer and finances and may God bless you with a wonderful Thanksgiving holiday with family and/or friends!
